RUFUS HATCH DEAD.

End of a Very Remarkable Career of Life.

PROMINENT WALL STREET MAN.

Mr. Hatch Had in His Career More Ups and Downs Than Usually Fall to the Lot of a "Money King"—Kidney and Liver Troubles the Cause of His Death.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Rufus Hatch, formerly a prominent Wall street man, ex-president of the Pacific Mail company and closely connected with the Panama Railroad company, died at his home in Spuyten Duyvil yesterday afternoon. He was a prominent figure on the street for 15 years.

Mr. Hatch has for a long time suffered from a complication of kidney and liver trouble.

RUFUS HATCH.

The death of Rufus Hatch removes from the financial world a figure which has been prominent for many years. Mr. Hatch had in his career more ups and downs than usually fall to the lot of a "money king."

He was born in Maine in 1830 and went west when 16 years old. After trying various callings he went into the commission business in Chicago. Here his luck began. At first he did well and prospered. But the close of the Crimean war found him heavily long of grain, and the collapse in the price of that staple broke him, and his firm failed for $100,000.

In 1863 he went to New York and was one of the originators of the open board of brokers. This organization did business in a Broad street cellar at first and was called the coal hole party, but it rapidly became a formidable rival of the older board and the two soon consolidated.

Mr. Hatch at that time had the backing of Henry Keep, the greatest operator of his time, and Keep's great success in manipulating the Chicago and Northwestern shares brought fortune to him and to his broker, Mr. Hatch. This was the period of Mr. Hatch's greatest success.

He was then one of the greatest men of Wall street, and his word went for everything. Some time after this Mr. Hatch failed again, this time for $600,000. But after awhile his skill and knowledge told again, and he was once more on his feet, and had settled with his creditors with interest.

In 1882 Mr. Hatch became largely interested in Northern Pacific and the Yellowstone park. In 1883 he brought over a party from England and Germany on the famous trip over the Northern Pacific to the Yellowstone park. Mr. Hatch seemed to be on the high wave of prosperity again.

At that time he lived in a handsome house on Park avenue, and his musical entertainments were the talk of the town. He would sometimes have whole theatrical companies come to his house and entertain his guests.

Mr. Hatch was the founder of the Iron Steamboat company. He met with his first reverse in the Great Northern Pacific break in 1883. He had unbounded faith in that property, and as he always went into a deal with his whole soul the Villard disaster left him once more financially stranded. Since that time he has done little in the street.

About the time of the Northern Pacific panic he sold his seat in the stock exchange and bought one in the New York petroleum exchange. He was instrumental in causing that body to begin dealings in railway shares and used to say they would soon run the older board out of business.

For the last few years Mr. Hatch had been more interested in grain than in stocks, and it is said that he and Mr. James R. Keene were together in the latter's famous corner of nine years ago.

Mr. Hatch occupied modest offices in the Washington building. The legend on the door was: "Rufus Hatch & Company, The Cattle Ranch Company, Limited."

Mr. Hatch, as is well known, was averse to talking about himself. When his opinion was sought on financial or commercial matters, he usually spoke at length. His short, burly figure was one of the most widely known in Wall street. He bore a general likeness to the late General B. F. Butler, especially about the massive forehead.

Mr. Hatch leaves three children by his first wife, who was a Miss Charlotte T. Hatch, and four by his second wife, who was a daughter of Captain Gray, the commodore of the Pacific mail fleet.

An Old Pioneer Drops Dead.

ELWOOD, Ind., Feb. 24.—Rev. Frank Alford, father of Rev. A. J. Alford, dropped dead yesterday of heart failure. The deceased was 71 years old and an old pioneer of Virginia. He has been a noted Christian minister for years, but only of recent residence in this city.

FUNERAL OF BEAUREGARD.

The Remains of the Late General Laid to Rest.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24.—Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the remains of General Pierce Gustave Loutant Beauregard were borne to their last resting place. The removal of the body from the parlors of the family mansion on Esplanade street to the city hall occurred Wednesday afternoon. Thousands of people yesterday paid a last look on the features of the dead general. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful in design and finish. Those who sent floral emblems were: George She of New York, Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Morris of Louisiana, Verietie association, Confederate Memorial association, Army of Virginia and Army of Tennessee.

The flag with which General Beauregard was presented by Mrs. Carey in Baltimore at the opening of the war, and which he donated to the Washington artillery a few years ago, was placed on the coffin by that command.

The ceremonies yesterday were elaborate in character, and the obsequies partook of the nature of a military and civic demonstration. The military formed on Lafayette square as follows: Washington artillery, Continental guards, Fifth battalion, Fourth battalion, Third battalion, Louisiana field artillery. The Army of Northern Virginia in double column and on the right of the hearse was the Army of Tennessee, on the left and abreast was the Army of Northern Virginia. Following the Washington artillery came the rear of them camp Nos. 9 and 10 of the Army of Tennessee.

The entire command, consisting of veterans and militia, was under the command of Brigadier General Euclid Boreland, himself a veteran of the Army of Northern Virginia. The veterans were in charge of Colonel A. A. McGinnis. The active pallbearers were General George Moorman, adjutant general of General Gordon; General M. Wright Schaumburg, adjutant general of Lieutenant General Smith; General John Glynn, Jr., commanding the Louisiana division of the United Confederate veterans; Colonel W. R. Lyman, commander of camp No. 1; Colonel J. B. Vinel, commander of camp No. 2; Colonel W. L. Vincent, commander of camp No. 9; Colonel B. F. Eshelman, commander of camp No. 15; Colonel Joseph Demonelle, commander of camp No. 16.

The active pallbearers wore long arm badges of English crepe, trimmed with black silk ribbon. The honorary pallbearers numbered nearly 100, including prominent Confederate soldiers and statesmen. The funeral cortege moved from the city hall at 3 o'clock, taking the following route of march: From the city hall up St. Charles street to Lee circle, through Howard avenue to Camp street, Camp to south side of Canal, out Canal to Clayborne, where the veterans and military commands boarded a special train of the New Orleans and Lake road, which was reserved for their use.

The interment was at Mount Airy cemetery, in the tomb of the Army of Tennessee. Throughout the day a steady stream of people poured through the council chamber wherein the remains of the dead warrior lay. Many distinguished visitors were among those who called. The family of the general arrived at the hall early, and proceeded to the room of the clerk in the rear of the mortuary chamber and remained there during the remainder of the day.

The funeral services were conducted according to the rites of the Catholic church by Rev. Father Labreau of St. Augustine church, who was an intimate friend of the deceased. The holy father prefaced the services with an impressive eulogy of his dead friend, and closed with prayer and a bestowal of the Lord's blessing on the coffin. One last look was taken at the face of the dead general and then the lid was closed and the body consigned to the tomb.

"THE MAN WITH THE COUGH."

Ex-Convict, Famous Counterfeiter and Notorious Bank Swindler Arrested.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Inspector McLaughlin has arrested Stephen C. Brodwell, an ex-convict, famous counterfeiter and notorious bank swindler. Brodwell's heavy swindling operations were in Cincinnati and Detroit, where the leading banks of both cities were heavy losers by his methods.

The prisoner had been living quietly in this city, at 304 West Twenty-third street, with his daughter, where he was arrested. Brodwell, who is 60 years old, was found to be very sick and was taken to Bellevue hospital as a prisoner. It is said that his chances of recovery are doubtful. The specific charges against Brodwell are that on Feb. 13, 1892, he swindled the Third National bank of Cincinnati out of $1,782, and the German National bank of Cincinnati out of $1,683. That on May 14, 1892 he defrauded the Third National bank of Detroit out of $1,782, and the City Savings bank of Detroit out of $1,485.

Brodwell disappeared immediately after these latest operations. The Detroit and Cincinnati banks offered a reward of $2,000 for his capture. When Inspector McLaughlin located Brodwell he sent word to Cincinnati, and yesterday three paying tellers came to this city and fully identified the swindler. If he lives Brodwell will be taken west for trial. He is noted as "the man with the cough."

An Engineer's Horrible Fate.

WILLOUGHBY, O., Feb. 24.—A Lake Shore special ran into a "light" engine at Wickliffe at 4 a. m. yesterday, killing Engineer James Gill, of the extra. He was pinioned in the cab with the lever through his body, and was horribly mangled.

THEY WILL REMAIN.

Hawaiian Commissioners in No Hurry to Return.

HAVE CHANGED THEIR MINDS.

Instead of Sailing For Honolulu Next Thursday They Will Remain Until the Senate Takes Action on the Treaty of Annexation Now Pending in That Body—Comment on the Coming of Princess Kaiulani.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Messrs. Thurston, Castle and Carter, members of the special Hawaiian commission, have determined to remain in Washington until the senate disposes of the treaty of annexation now pending before it in one way or another. It has been their intention to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on the 2d of March next, but within the past few days they have changed their minds.

The coming to the United States of the Princess Kaiulani in company with Mr. T. H. Davies, who has been supervising her education in England, is variously commented upon. It is reported that Mr. Davies, acting on behalf of the princess, proposed to Minister Lincoln in London to accept a protectorate on the part of the United States for the princess, Queen Liliuokalani's claims to the throne to be ignored in case the proposition was accepted. To Dr. Mott Smith, the Hawaiian minister in Washington, it is said Mr. Davies made a similar proposition, although what most extended this was, it is said, that the United States should establish the princess on the throne of Hawaii under a protectorate and a regency for a term of three years, at the expiration of that period a new arrangement to be made for the government of the islands satisfactory to the United States.

Mr. Davies suggested that S. B. Dole, the president of the present provisional government of Hawaii, should be regent under the arrangement that he suggested.

It is said the action of Mr. Davies in bringing the princess to the United States was taken against the counsel of her friends, both in this country and in Honolulu, but that Mr. Davies in communications upon the subject has expressed his opinion that a visit to the United States by the princess could not fail of resulting in a benefit to her cause.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY

In the Manufacture of Iron and Steel Made in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 24.—Within the past week experiments made in this city prove that old scrap iron and steel may be turned directly into high grade steel without the manipulations of the rolling mill. The product of the new process possesses all the attributes of steel with additional virtues. It contains combined carbon gained in the crucible by chemical treatment, thus saving much time; it can be molded into any required form forming the most difficult angles without cracking or being full of blowholes.

It can readily be tempered up to 8, has about 3,000 crystals to the inch, takes a perfect polish and cutting edge. Local iron and steel men who have loaned of the discovery and seen the product are enthusiastic over the process. It saves the 21 days required for annealing, does away with much costly machinery and is believed to be the most important discovery in its line in many years.

Gone Thirty Years.

LEBANON, Ky., Feb. 24.—Thirty years ago Consie Mattingly, aged 30, mysteriously disappeared from his home. The most diligent search failed to learn anything of his whereabouts. One day last week Consie just as mysteriously made his appearance at his former home in this county, and it was with difficulty that he persuaded his relatives that he was the missing Consie. Three years since his father died, leaving a big estate, which the administrator settled up and paid to the known heirs. Now Consie wants his share.

Crazy in Love.

KINNICKONICK, Ky., Feb. 24.—Sidney Lane of Marion county, Kan., attempted suicide Tuesday by taking a dose of morphine. He is a highly respected young man, and has been visiting relatives in this state since last fall. He recently fell in love with Miss Ella Lane, a first cousin, but the match was seriously objected to by the young lady's parents. Young Lane will be sent home as soon as he recovers from the effects of his rash act. He says he will not try it again.

Chasing a Horse Thief.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Feb. 24.—Frank Darling, giving his home as Cincinnati, secured employment at Jett's livery stable at this place, a week ago. Wednesday night he left with a good horse and buggy and the overcoats of the other employees of the stable. From telegrams just received it is learned that he has been seen in Augusta. The marshal there was notified by telegraph, and Messrs. Fagan, Ware and Bolner, are in close pursuit of the thief.

Train Rescued From a Snowdrift.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 24.—Four engines succeeded at midnight in extricating a passenger train on the Reading and Lancaster railroad which was caught in a snowdrift north of here yesterday morning. The passengers had had little to eat since the train was stalled. Drifts in some places were 20 feet high across the tracks.

CORBETT-MITCHELL FIGHT OFF.

The Proposed Trip to Canada Will Not Take Place.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Pugilist Charles Mitchell arrived in New York yesterday afternoon from Lakewood, N. J., accompanied by "Squire" Abington Baird. The party was driven to The Police Gazette office, where Mr. Fox entertained them. To the surprise of those present Mitchell declared that he would not meet William A. Brady, Corbett's manager, in Canada on Saturday to sign articles, despite the fact that he gave his word that he would. He said that he now wants the $10,000 stake deposited in New Orleans.

Before Mitchell and Abington left the Gledney House in the afternoon, the former issued a letter through Mr. Fox in which he declares that he came to this country to fight Corbett, and that despite the fact that he had made concession after concession no agreement had yet been signed. He recites the fact that he was threatened with arrest if the money to bind the match was posted in this city, and asks pointedly why no harsh steps were taken against the numerous pugilists who have previously made matches in this city. In conclusion, Mitchell proposes that those interested visit some state in this Union where the laws do not prohibit the holding of money for stakes or wagers and with that end in view suggests a meeting at New Orleans at the earliest date to immediately consummate the matter.

Brady and Mitchell met last night at the office of The Dramatic News, and the meeting resulted in the proposed trip to Canada being postponed and the match being virtually declared off.

Mitchell will go to New Orleans with Jim Hall and second him in his fight on March 8 with Bob Fitzsimmons. If Corbett desires to open negotiations there it is all right, Mitchell says if he does not, he will return to England.

Mitchell's letter to the effect that he desires the money posted in New Orleans has caused consternation among the managers of the Coney Island Athletic club, as it virtually means that Mitchell wants to fight in Louisiana, and not in the north. Just why the Britisher gives the preference to New Orleans managers is not known. It is said that Corbett will insist upon fighting before the Coney Island club, so it is most likely that the match will fall through. Brady, it is said, will drop Mitchell and make a match with Peter Jackson on Monday.

ARTHUR LEARY DEAD.

Social Leader, Prominent Lawyer and Politician.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Arthur Leary, who was for a generation a social leader and who made an enviable reputation as a lawyer in the finances and politics, is dead. He was attacked by grip some time ago, and was unequal to the complications which followed and expired surrounded by his relatives at his home, 90 Fifth avenue, at 9 o'clock Wednesday. An attack of grip incapacitated Mr. Leary about Jan. 1, and after shaking it off he was taken down with pneumonia, which so weakened his system that he died of exhaustion.

No announcement of the death was made Wednesday night and several friends, among them Cornelius Vanderbilt and Philip Bleecker, called Thursday morning to inquire about Mr. Leary's condition. They were shocked to hear that he had succumbed to the attack of pneumonia.

From an early age he was associated with large financial and shipping interests, among the latter being the Cunard company. Mr. Leary was 62 years old and unmarried.

Locked Up for Four Years.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24.—Kirk W. Blackburn was received at the state prison yesterday for perjury in connection with seizing land in the Oklahoma rush. He had bribed the guards, and slipped a woman through the lines to squat on a prospective townsite. He claimed she was mounted on a fast horse and dashed into Oklahoma after the word "go" was given. The government found differently, and Blackburn will serve four years. Blackburn is a fine looking man, elegantly dressed, and spent $200,000 trying to clear himself. He was formerly an Ohio man, and dealt in horses in northern Ohio, with headquarters at Cleveland.

Must Go to Prison.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—By a decision of the supreme court yesterday Brazil Ledgerwood and Samuel Harbin must serve 17 years each in state prison for the alleged burning of the Washington county courthouse. The fire occurred on Oct. 7, 1891, and it was some time before the incendiaries were captured. A long, sensational trial followed, in which it was charged that a county official hired the men to set fire to the building to destroy the records. The lower court gave each a 17 years' sentence. The supreme court has affirmed the decision.

Double Tragedy.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a quarrel occurred between a man named Baer and George Ritterbantz at the latter's shoe store on Madison avenue. Baer gave Ritterbantz a worthless check in payment for a pair of shoes. Baer shot Ritterbantz and then shot himself dead. Ritterbantz was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in a dying condition.

The Mule Threw Him.

KINNICKONICK, Ky., Feb. 24.—Ham Edgington, the 12-year-old son of Dr. Edgington of this place, met with a probably fatal accident yesterday evening. He was returning from a grist-mill, riding a mule, when the animal scared suddenly and threw him. He fell upon his head and shoulder. His collar bone was broken, and he was injured internally. His condition is serious.

FIRE IN TURKEY.

Five Hundred Houses Burned in Kadikey.

THREE THOUSAND HOMELESS.

Estimated Loss Will Reach Fifty Million Francs—The Sultan Has Sent Assistance to the Sufferers—Various Other Foreign Dispatches.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 24.—Five hundred houses in the village of Kadikey, across the Bosphorus from Constantinople, were burned last night. More than 3,000 people are homeless. The damage is estimated at 50,000,000 francs. The English quarter was not touched by the fire. The sultan has ordered that the government officials give aid to the sufferers.

CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Organizations Using Their Money For the Purchase of Arms.

BELFAST, Feb. 24.—It is rumored here that the Unionist-Conservative organizations are preparing a simultaneous withdrawal of moneys deposited in the Postoffice Savings bank, the money to be employed in the purchase of arms, ammunition and equipments of war, should a resort to physical force become the Unionist policy. It is asserted that negotiations have been opened with English firms, and Wednesday a club in Dungan received an offer of 1,000 Martini-Henry rifles at a low price. The Northern Whig of this city, referring to a meeting of the chamber of commerce to hear reports as to the financial effect of home rule, says there is a feeling of alarm. The moneyed class is nervous, and the result is depression of stocks in the Great Northern Line Bank of Ireland.

Civil Marriages in Hungary.

VIENNA, Feb. 24.—The municipal authorities of Pesth and other cities of Hungary have adopted resolutions approving the ecclesiastical policy of the Hungarian government, and demanding that civil marriage be made obligatory. This action is in direct antagonism to the Roman Catholic church authorities, who are sparing no effort to defeat the movement in favor of civil marriage.

Ancient Structures Doomed.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Lamb's buildings, adjoining the Temple church and Hare court, are to be torn down next June. Pump court, however, will be left untouched. The doomed buildings date from James I, and some even from the time of Queen Elizabeth. The chief reason for the demolition is that the removal of the buildings will open Temple lane.

England Backs Colombia.

BOGOTA, Colombia, Feb. 24.—The British minister at Bogota has assured the Colombia government that England will aid it in maintaining Colombian rights on the isthmus. This aid is to be extended by virtue of the provisions of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty should the French government undertake to interfere with Colombian rights.

Commercial Crisis.

ATHENS, Feb. 24.—A serious commercial crisis is threatening in Patras, in consequence of the slackness of the country trade and rash speculation in bullion. Several old houses are bankrupt and more are expected to fail.

Receiving the Pilgrims.

ROME, Feb. 24.—Pope Leo yesterday received the pilgrims who have come to attend his Episcopal jubilee from South America, Hungary and France.

Conductor Conklin Brought In.

WOOSTER, O., Feb. 24.—Sheriff Smith reached here yesterday in charge of O. D. Conklin of Pittsburg. Conklin is the conductor who was in charge of the freight train which caused the terrible wreck on the Fort Wayne road near Shreve on the morning of Sept. 21, 1892, in which 11 lives were lost. The grand jury found three indictments, each for manslaughter, against Conklin and his engineer, Bradley. Bradley could not be found in Pittsburg, but it is stated is at work in East Palestine, O., and will give himself up.

Big Cotton Mill.

FLORENCE, Ala., Feb. 24.—The organization of the Cherry Cotton company, with a paid up capital of $200,000, was effected here Wednesday. The contract has been let for one of the largest cotton mills in the state, to be in operation by Sept. 1. The Mountain mills of Barton, Ala., will be consolidated with the Cherry mills. The officers of the company are N. F. Cherry, president; James M. Head of Nashville, vice president; C. M. Brindon, secretary and superintendent; N. C. Elting, treasurer.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 24.—A block of 18 dwelling houses were destroyed by fire in the Windsor terrace, Flatbush, yesterday. The total loss will be about $30,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.
For Kentucky, fair Friday; westerly winds; slightly cooler.

DEMOCRATS got the best of the Republicans in the municipal contest at Pittsburg this week. The old Republican stronghold is gradually falling into line.

It is a rather singular coincidence that Governor McKinley, the great advocate of the tariff on tin plate, should be ruined financially by endorsing for a man engaged in the tin plate business.

In distributing his Cabinet "plums," President-elect Cleveland gives the East three, the South three and the West two. Viewed from another point, the North gets five of the positions and the South three.

A BILL to place a tax of one dollar on each dog in the State has been defeated by the North Carolina Legislature. The North Carolina law-makers like the Kentucky law-makers seem to prefer dogs to sheep.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Lexington Leader gives assurance that "the Republicans of Nicholas County are not dead." They are probably in an unconscious condition only, from the effects of the knock-out last fall.

Says the Nashville American: "No one act of Mr. Cleveland will more thoroughly and conclusively demonstrate his purpose to fulfill his pledges than the appointment of Judge Gresham, the man who left his party upon the issue involved in those pledges. Gresham and Carlisle alone would make his Cabinet a great one."

A COMMITTEE of the Legislature is considering the charter for cities of the fourth class, and Cynthiana, Shelbyville and Mt. Sterling are fighting some of its provisions. Maysville people must be greatly pleased with it as they have taken no steps to demand any changes. Still, in its present form, it takes the election of nearly all the city officials out of the hands of the people.

THE Corporation bill, one of the most important pending in the Legislature, turns up missing, and the Chairman of the Committee can't tell where it is. A few days ago announcement was made that over one hundred other bills that had been introduced could not be found. If the careless, do-nothing members of the Legislature would just quietly drop out of sight, disappear, or turn up missing, the State would be better off.

We have yet to find one Democratic paper that does not indorse President Cleveland's selection of Judge Gresham for Secretary of State. Some of the politicians, of course, are not pleased, but the press and the people are with Mr. Cleveland in this matter. Still, the Public Ledger imagines Gresham's appointment has caused a chill to pervade the Democratic party. The Ledger is about as near right on this as it is on anything else.

THE Frankfort correspondent of the Covington Commonwealth refers to ex-Governor Buckner, ex-Auditor Fayette Hewitt, ex-Attorney General Hardin and other members of the old Sinking Fund Commission as "back numbers." The correspondent seems to think that the old Board should keep silent and not attempt to refute the insinuations recently made by Governor Brown. If Messrs. Buckner, Hardin and Hewitt are "back numbers" they will have some distinguished company in the course of a few years.

After the Collectorship.

The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says: "Judge Louis Apperson arrived here to-day from Mt. Sterling. The Judge has started out to capture the Internal Revenue Collectorship of the Lexington district. The Judge has been hustling for the past few weeks, and it is said he has secured some very strong indorsements. He is not worried by the fact that Representative Breckinridge has indorsed Colonel Shelby for the place, nor is he losing any sleep on account of the candidacy of State Senator Jim Muligan. It is whispered around that Colonel Breckinridge's man has a cinch on the place and that the air will be filled with dust should the unexpected happen and a short horse win."

Coal.

We have just received another shipment of the celebrated Williams coal which we will sell at 10 cents per bushel, cash.

GABLE BROS.

Calling Down Sam Jones' Critics.

"Is it not a just little inconsistent for the papers of the State to continue their warfare against Sam Jones?" inquires the Owensville Opinion. "Let it be admitted that he says a great many very harsh things, and uses a great deal of slang. What about the result of his work? Does he not advocate good morals, honesty, sobriety, &c.? Has he not given away to charity a great deal of money? If Sam gets a thousand or two thousand for two weeks work, it is looked upon by some as immense sum of money. Ingersoll comes into the State and lectures at $500 per night. He is paid to ridicule a book that even most of the Kentucky editors were taught to revere. Mr. Ingersoll has nothing to offer as a solution of the deepest problems that can engage the mind of man. Yet, it is all right to pay fifty cents for the privilege to sit in the bald headed row and hear Ingersoll scoff a faith that will be young, beautiful and helpful, when Ingersoll is remembered only to be pitied or despised. With all Sam Jones' faults he is accomplishing more for the world in one year than the majority of his critics ever will accomplish."

G. W. BLATTERMAN,
Sup't Public Schools Mason County.

THE death of General Beauregard leaves but one of the seven full Generals of the Southern army living, and none of the five men on whom that rank was conferred at the beginning of the war. These men were Cooper, Lee, Joseph E. Johnston, Albert Sydney Johnston and Beauregard. Bragg and Kirby Smith were afterwards made full Generals. Kirby Smith alone survives.

MOSE BERRYMAN, a colored passenger on a C. and O. train near Lexington, became disorderly, and then pulled a razor on the conductor when reproved. The conductor didn't "bluff" worth a cent. He took the negro into custody and turned him over to the authorities. Judge Bullock fined him $100 and costs for raising the row, gave him thirty days in jail for carrying a concealed weapon and $25 and costs for assault. As the prisoner started to leave the court room he took a drink of whisky from a bottle, and the Judge gave him an additional sentence for contempt of court.

Editor Bulletin: In a Public Ledger of recent date we found the following: "It was not one hundred years ago that the Hawaiian restaurants used to hang out the sign: 'Hot Boiled Missionary With Vegetables, 25 cents.'" But the Ledger failed to add, when a revolution occurred in Honolulu on January 14th, and the Queen was deposed, a provisional government was at once formed, and the son of an American missionary—S. B. Dole—was placed at the head.

CITY CHARTERS.

Senate Committee Has Made Some Changes in the One For Towns of the Fourth Class.

The Senate Committee on Municipalities at Frankfort has been considering the proposed charter for cities of the fourth class this week, and a special from there to the Covington Post says the committee has virtually agreed to adopt the charter proposed by the citizens, instead of that prepared by the Revisory Commission. Section 2 of the Revisory charter was accepted, however, and substituted for section 2 of the citizens'.

The substitute provides that upon a petition signed by two-thirds of the residents of any ward or district and presented for a change of boundary, the court shall hear proof, and there shall be no appeal.

It was agreed that Mayors should still be elected by the Common Council, and not by a general election.

Bellevue, Dayton, Ludlow, Paris, Cynthiana, Shelbyville, Ashland, Mt. Sterling, Danville and Lebanon were represented, most of them by city attorneys. The charter about agreed upon is that adopted at the Winchester meeting.

The committee has given the Representatives until next Thursday afternoon to prepare any additional amendments.

In the Legislature yesterday, the House refused to recede from its amendment to the bill on crimes and punishment making the misappropriation of money by a partner embezzlement. The committee on judiciary recommended that the House recede; but it refused by a vote of 28 to 22.

The Senate has refused to concur in the amendment, and a conference committee will have to be called.

The Senate yesterday was in a quandary over the bill on private corporations, which has mysteriously disappeared and can not be found. Senator Alexander, Chairman of the Committee, says he can find no way in which it could have been lost, and both he and Senator Conner, of Boone, urged a full investigation that it may be ascertained at whose door the blame lies. A full investigation is to be made. All the members of the Committee present deny any knowledge of the bill, and the Sergeant-at-Arms will be sent to see those absent, and learn if any of them know anything of it.

The House Committee on Education reported Senate bill No. 41, "an act to provide for an efficient system of common schools throughout the State," with sundry amendments. One of the important amendments opens the sale of text books to all publishing houses.

Another amendment makes a violation of the school laws a felony punishable by one to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

SAYS the Henderson Journal: "It is on the program for the Kentucky Press Association to go to the World's Fair in a body at its meeting some time in June. The place of the annual meeting has not yet been fixed." Henderson may be selected.

The performance given by Vreeland's Operatic Minstrels at the opera house contained sufficient merit to please any audience, and cause the most grim to smile. We can truthfully say there was not a dull moment in the two and a half hours' program, and the Vreeland's will be welcomed back at any time.—Evening Express, Lock Haven, August 25.

A SPECIAL from Versailles says Senator J. C. S. Blackburn will attract attention at Cleveland's Inauguration attired in an honest Democratic suit of jeans. He some time ago expressed a wish to do so. Van B. Nelson quietly wrote to the Mississippi Woolen Mills to manufacture a special piece of goods for the purpose, and Captain Andrew Steele is having a Versailles tailor make it up, regardless of expense.

The presence of Ex-Governor Buckner at Frankfort in consultation with Ex-Auditor Fayette Hewitt, Ex-Attorney General Hardin and other ex-members of the Sinking Fund Trustees gives rise to a rumor that they are preparing a response to the recent communication of Governor Brown to the Legislature intimating, if not directly charging mismanagement of penitentiary affairs by the old Board.

RUSHING LEGISLATION.

Good Progress Made by the Senate on the Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Good progress was made in the senate yesterday in disposing of the absolutely necessary work of congress. Within less than an hour two of the general appropriation bills—the diplomatic and consular and the military academy—were read, considered and passed. And then the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill (which appropriates about $22,000,000) was taken up and considered until the time of adjournment, all the amendments that were reported from the committee having been agreed to, except as to a few reserved for further discussion and action.

There was no discussion at all on either of the first two bills. The only item that might have led to a contest in the diplomatic and consular bill was the amendment authorizing the President of the United States to direct that the American minister to any foreign court represented in the United States by an ambassador, envoy extraordinary, minister resident, special envoy, or charge d'affaires, shall bear the same designation. But no point was made upon it and the amendments were agreed to.

The incident in the house was the ovation tendered the next secretary of the navy, Hilary A. Herbert of Alabama. He entered the hall during the consideration of the conference report on the army appropriation bill, and thought to escape observation. He waited to do so. He was warmly greeted and, without regard to party, his colleagues with each other in doing him honor.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up notwithstanding the opposition of Mr. Hatch of Missouri, who desired to call up the anti-options bill.

JUDGE JACKSON'S SUCCESSOR.

The President Appoints Benton Hanchett Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The president yesterday nominated Benton Hanchett of Michigan to succeed Judge Jackson in the Sixth judicial district.

Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading attorneys of the state. He was known to the president and the attorney general by reputation, but neither of them enjoyed his personal acquaintance. Although he has frequently been named in connection with offices of various character, Mr. Hanchett has studiously declined political preferment, his only position of this sort being that of Republican presidential elector in 1896.

When Mr. Stockbridge was making a campaign for renomination to the senate, Mr. Hanchett was brought forward by the opposition, but withdrew by the time Mr. Stockbridge's case began to grow doubtful. He also declined a proffered appointment to the supreme court of Michigan which was tendered him by Governor Luce. Mr. Hanchett was not a candidate for the place, but on the contrary endorsed Mr. T. J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids, who was an avowed candidate for the appointment. A singular feature of the case is that both the senators from Michigan and ex-Senator Palmer, president of the world's fair, endorsed Mr. O'Brien. Mr. Hanchett is about 55 years old and in robust health.

Redwine is Still Running.

ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Bank Examiner Williams is here and yesterday assumed charge of the Gate City National bank. The bank will not open its doors. The latest developments put the amount of the defalcation of Redwine at $70,000. A man arrested at New Orleans, suspected of being Redwine, proves to be somebody else. A young man who committed suicide at Anniston and at first believed to be Redwine, has also been identified as somebody else.

Chicago Hogging the Space.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24.—Secretary W. T. Albertson, of the Ohio fair commission, said yesterday when asked concerning the determination of the Cincinnati manufacturers not to make an exhibit, as the space asked for had been so reduced as to make a creditable display impossible: "The sentiment prevails all over the state that Chicago is hogging the space." He regretted that the Ohio space had been necessarily reduced.

Ran Away From Home.

BOURBON, Ind., Feb. 24.—Guy Porter, Dallas Wilfred, Howard Frisco and Charles Colson, boys ranging from 10 to 12 years old, ran away from home Wednesday night. No reason could be assigned, as they were members of good families, with comfortable homes. Young Wilfred left a letter for his father in which he said, "I'm at Plymouth, and am going to Michigan."

Renewed an Old Quarrel.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—While John Haley and Daniel O'Leary were drinking together last night at the house of the latter at 2035 Adeline street, an old quarrel was renewed between them and in the fight that followed, Haley stabbed O'Leary to death. Haley was arrested.

Injured In a Gas Explosion.

MARION, Ind., Feb. 24.—Robert Lenfestey, living three miles east of the city, was seriously burned last night in a natural gas explosion. He entered a building with a lantern to repair a gas regulator. There was a leak, an explosion, a wrecked building and an injured man.

His Attempt Failed.

WILLOUGHBY, O., Feb. 24.—Allen Brown attempted suicide yesterday by cutting his throat. He was discovered in time to save his life. He is unmarried. Ill health was the cause of the rash act.

Three Burglars Sentenced.

WILMINGTON, O., Feb. 24.—Harry Lord, William Murphy and John Marco were each sentenced to 15 months in the penitentiary yesterday morning for burglary.

A Milliner Assigns.

WILMINGTON, O., Feb. 24.—Mrs. Anna Weltz, a milliner of this city, has assigned her stock of goods to J. C. Martin. Liabilities unknown.

Death of Little Jessie White at the Visitation Academy.

This morning at twenty minutes after 6 o'clock little Jessie White, daughter of Mrs. F. D. Bayless of West Union, O., yielded her innocent soul to God, after a severe spell of inflammation of the lungs. Her mother and sisters, as well as several of her teachers, were present at her death. The loss of this lovely little girl can not but cast a gloom over the academy, this being the first death of a pupil within its walls.

"Enough

Is as Good as a Feast."

But at the same time he invites your attention to his stock of goods, such as
